

OPTICAL FIBER FABRICATION: Holmium-doped silica fiber designs extend fiber lasers beyond 2 μm

August 01, 2012

A 140 W, 2.13 μm mid-infrared (mid-IR) fiber laser operating with 60% slope efficiency is possible using holmium-doped silica fibers operating at the long-wavelength limit of silica optical fiber transmission.

Authors : Bryce Samson, George Oulundsen, Adrian Carter, and Steven R. Bowman

Please visit Laser Focus World for access to the full paper.....

<http://www.laserfocusworld.com/articles/print/volume-48/issue-08/features/holmium-doped-silica-fiber-designs-extend-fiber-lasers-beyond-2-um.html>